Transvestism and women 79 Feminist responses Feminist work has tended to focus, not surprisingly, on the position of women in society and, as yet, there is not a great deal of work on. Twenty years ago sociology would not have even considered transgender, transvestism, and transsexualism. The medicalization and pathologizing of these phenomena under such categorizations as transvestism, transsexualism, gender dysphoria, and intersex ensured that cross-dressing and sex-changing were considered, in the main, to be the domain of medicine and psychology.
