Infinite Space, Infinite God II is a science fiction anthology of Catholic-related tales, edited by Robert and Karina Fabian. It's not preachy. And there is not even a whiff, a hint, a Reviews: Infinite Space, Infinite God II is a collection of twelve stories that reject the "conventional wisdom" that Christianity is inherently irrational and anti-science, that a spacefaring mankind will shed its religion, like a butterfly discarding its chrysalis, and that any intelligent life we discover will not be religious in any meaningful sense/5. In Infinite Space, Infinite God II, the creativity of science fiction is merged with the morality of Catholicism. The result is the second collection of 12 short stories edited .

Infinite Space, Infinite God II stacks up quite well against any collection of short spec-fic you're likely to find on the shelves this Christmas season. It would make a .
