THE AUTHORITY OF THE BIBLE. People must have a true and authoritative basis for their faith. Many popular religions are based entirely on human ideas and thus are merely theories or philosophies. Christianity is based on the Bible which Christians accept as their final authority because they believe it to be inspired by God. The Bible is the only inspired, inerrant, infallible, clear, and sufficient standard for their faith and life. It carries absolute authority and is unflinchingly reliable. The Bible is the greatest earthly treasure that could possibly be placed in the hands of mankind. It is life-giving wisdom, leading to salvation and maturity. The Authority of the Bible Relates to Other Basic Baptist Beliefs. Because Baptists regard the Bible as the sole written authority for faith and practice, the Bible is foundational for Baptist doctrine and church polity. Baptist statements of belief through the centuries have always cited Scriptures for each belief set forth. The authority of the Bible calls on us to recognize God's desire for unity (through variety) in the church (Ephesians. ; John 17; 1 Corinthians 12) and the need to love one another (John ), even when we disagree over the interpretation of Scripture itself. In the last resort what counts with the evangelical is the authority of the Bible, just as what counts with the liberal is the exercise of reason, and with the catholic the authority of the Church.

The authority of the Bible "The real oppressor, enslaver, and corrupter of the people is the Bible." - Robert G. Ingersoll "It cannot be emphasized too strongly or too often that this great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Christians; not on religions, but on the Gospel of Jesus Christ. For this very reason peoples of other.
