A very interesting biographical novel about the Lee family of Virginia. Starts in for just a bit and then backtracks to tell the Lee story from If you are interested in Virginia history and/or Robert E. Lee's ancestors, I think you would like this book/5.

From Tom Lee to Robert E. Lee, who made the fateful decision to turn from the nation he loved to defend the state he loved more, the Lees of Virginia dominated both . As a woman who married into the Lee family of Stratford and Leesylvania, I can say that these authors have done their homework and crafted believable dialogues among the Lee family members. It's a good romp into the early days of colonial America.
